AIFL Program Impact

Youth Ambassador Exchange Program (YASE)

"...It was a transformative experience on so many levels... I was excited to meet the incredible Women Leaders from all over the country, as well as, the outstanding Israeli women leaders..."

"... For such a small country Israel has positively impacted the entire world through science and technological innovation."

"... This year, we had students from 15 countries represented in our delegation, and we were able to experience Israel in a variety of ways, beginning in Tel Aviv, heading up north to a Kibbutz in the Golan Heights, and ending with five packed days in Jerusalem. Thanks to AIFL for helping again with our trip both logistically and financially - without AIFL, it truly would not have been possible."

AIFL programs and activities place emphasis on Israel beyond the conflict and on the shared commitment to democracy by both countries. Americans who participate in our Leadership Delegation Program experience Israel's vast contributions to the world in science, technology, medicine, environmental protection and the arts. They also witness Israel's vibrant culture, which nourishes many faiths.

2017 Influential Women's Delegation

For the first time, a delegation of 18 influential American women from business, law enforcement, research and policy institutes, think tanks, politics, the media and law, traveled to Israel with the AIFL.

2017 Harvard Law School Delegation

2017 State Financial Officers Foundation Delegation (SFOF)

2017 Law Review Editors Delegation
